RE: MURs 5164 and 5182
Reform Party 2000 Convention Committee and Gerald Moan, as Treasurer
Request for Appropriate Extensions of Time

Dear Mr. Baker:

Yesterday or today, I received a letter dated 20 October 2003, with accompanying "Factual and Legal Analysis," addressed to former Reform Party counsel, with copy and enclosures to Lou Anne Jones, Reform Party Chair.

As is obvious, we'll also need an extension of time to "submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter."

The Reform Party contemplates an audit of the disputed $334,000.00 transaction(s), together with an audit of all financial activity of the Reform Party's 2000 Convention Committee. That audit will doubtless be of as much value to the Commission, as it is to the Reform Party, in clarifying, and hopefully resolving, this dispute.

Why the Reform Party's internal procedures delayed until now your Chair's important letter is a matter we are separately inquiring into.
